Lockwood of the Marion Chronicle Mr. Lockwood is one of the strongest writers in Indiana. He has convictions and is not afraid to express Real Estate Transfers from October them. He says:

.. The maintenance of marmony to party organization is a consideration not to be forgotten, but the prime essential of a wholesome and effective party government is that it shall be representative; representative not of the ambitions of any man or set of men; not of the interests of any faction, clique or leader, but representative of the 'e less and the purposes of the mainty of the republicans of the real and file. The party which fails in its organization, in its pronouncements and in its candidates to give expression to belief in the principles for the vindication of which a party properly exists is subverting and not fulfilling its mission.

W. R. C. CONVENTION.

Thirteenth District Crops Have Interesting Session At Bremen-Report From Mrs. Fields.

The Woman's Relief Corps of the Thirteenth district met in convention in Bremen Oct. 11. Over one hundred delegates were present. The district comprises six counties, with 21 corps. Miles H. Tibbetts ecros of Plymouth, sent a delegation of 15 going overland. The merry party left the city at eight o'clock, arriving in Bremen at 11:30 too late to get much good from the morning session, which opened at 9:30; but the afternoon presented so many good things all fell they were well paid for the trip.

Our corps was so fortunate as to have the first honor of the district. One of our members, Martha Field. Saving been delegate to the National Convention in Rochester, N. Y. Aug. 19 to 25, and in this convention made her report and a good report it was, Would like to make comments, but modesty forbids. Yet we dare say what others said. South Road delegates declared it to be the best ever presented to any convention in the 13th district. She was given a hearty vote of thanks, and Muffler Cut-out Should Not Be Alreceived many congratalations, and we were proud she was ours.

All the work of the convention was interesting and helpful, and the day was surely well spent. Bromen entertained her guesis in fine style. and the success of the convention and its entertainment was due to the Republican candidates for district efforts of the district president, Mrs Elizabeth Baxter, of Bremen. The Thirteenth are beginning to be next meeting will be in Union Mills.
